FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MENIFEE, CA- Join the City of Menifee on Saturday, April 4th for the annual Menifee Music and Arts Festival taking place at Mt. San Jacinto College (28237 La Piedra Road, Menifee, CA 92584) from 3 PM to 10 PM. The annual Music and Arts Festival is headlined by platinum selling artist Parmalee, and opens with a wide variety of local performers including rising country artist Coffey Anderson and “The Voice” contestant Lee Koch. Mt. San Jacinto Jazz Ensemble, Replay Band, Elevation Band and Paul and Tawnie will also be featured acts to name a few.

The day will be dedicated to celebrating arts from all mediums and the colorful and diverse culture within Menifee! Come dance along to live music, watch local artists showcase their craft and enjoy what makes Menifee so unique! In addition to musical performances, participants can enjoy live art demonstrations on Mt. San Jacinto’s campus which will come alive with the “Arts Fest”, an immersive art experience, beginning at 2 PM. Local artists will represent the Arts Council Menifee as well as Mt. San Jacinto College’s art departments and many artists will have pieces available for purchase.

There will be activities for families including a kid’s art area, corn-hole competition hosted by Super Freaks Corn Hole and an escape room demonstration hosted by Clever Fox Escape Room. Various vendors will also have unique items on sale and there will be a wide variety of food trucks and vendors serving delicious treats and entrees. Additionally, beer and wine sales will be hosted by the Menifee Valley Community Cupboard and is available for purchase among event participants ages 21 and older. Sales will include a wide variety of local craft beers and popular local wines.

“The Music and Arts Festival offers something for everyone in the family to enjoy! The City of Menifee, Mt. San Jacinto College, the Arts Council Menifee and the Menifee Valley Community Cupboard strive to highlight the unique arts and culture available in Menifee,” Said Jonathan Nicks, Community Services Director. “We look forward to a day full of music and art experiences!”

The Menifee Music and Arts Festival is free to attend, with the option of purchasing a VIP experience for $45.00, which includes the VIP Lounge, Dinner, and Seating near the stage, and a commemorative VIP Lanyard (quantities are limited).
