City of Menifee Invites Community to Celebrate Grand Opening of Sunset Park

Residents are invited to attend the festivities which will include a ribbon cutting ceremony and activities and games presented by the City's Healthy Menifee and Rec N' Trek teams

MENIFEE, CA – The City of Menifee welcomes the community to attend its grand opening of the City's latest family-friendly park, Sunset Park, located at 29944 Forester Cir. The official opening event kicks off on Saturday, April 9 at 10 a.m.

Located on the west side of Menifee, Sunset Park features a well-shaded tot-lot with other park amenities including a merry-go-round, benches for parents to relax as their children play, grassy fields, a picnic shelter, planted foliage and trees, and lighted pathways. With three acres of grassy fields, this sunny park is an ideal spot for a pick-up soccer game or a quick round of frisbee.

"Sunset Park is a great addition to our community and provides the perfect outdoor space to spend time with family and friends," said City Councilmember Matt Liesemeyer. "We look forward to our residents joining us this Saturday to celebrate this wonderful new park here in Menifee."

Hosted by the City's Healthy Menifee and Rec N' Trek teams, the grand opening celebration will include healthy activities, games, and other free family-friendly fun including a ribbon-cutting ceremony to kick off the festivities.

For more information about the Sunset Park Grand Opening or any future special events, contact the Community Services Department at www.cityofmenifee.us/specialevents, email communityservices@cityofmenifee.us, or call (951) 723-3880.

Driving Directions: Traveling westbound on Newport Road, turn right on Goetz Road, then turn left on Audie Murphy Road and continue straight to Sunset Park.
