

CREATING YOUR EMERGENCY KIT

YOU'LL NEED ENOUGH SUPPLIES TO LAST AT LEAST 72 HOURS

Have enough supplies to last EACH family member at least 72 hours.

HAVE ENOUGH WATER

You'll need a gallon of water per person for three days. For a family of four, that is equivalent to 32 16-oz bottles of water.

STOCK UP ON FOOD

Each family member needs enough food to last them three days. Stock up on non perishable (canned) foods. Make sure to only stock food your family will eat and include a can opener with your supply.

ENERGY SOURCE

Maintain a viable source of energy. Stock up on batteries and include charging cables for all devices.

EMERGENCY CONTACT INFO

In case you need to contact someone, keep your emergency contact info online AND on paper as well insurance and ID documents.

BABY SUPPLIES

If you have babies (or plan to in the future) make sure to store bottles, diapers, baby food, and formula.

PET SUPPLIES

Don't forget your furry friends. Keep an extra collar and leash handy, along with your pets' ID, food, pet carrier, and bowls.

MEDICAL SUPPLIES

Keep a supply of first aid kits, updated prescriptions, hearing aids, glasses, contact lenses, canes, EpiPens or other medical supplies.

ELECTRONICS

Make sure to include electronic devices and chargers or batteries, including flashlights, radios, mobile phones, hand crank radios, and a GPS.

PRACTICAL NEEDS

Remember to include practical items such as an extra set of keys, maps, and a roll of duct tape. Do not forget to include personal hygiene items such as toilet paper, soap, baby wipes, etc.
